Calendar Girls

Inspired by real events, Calendar Girls depicts the journey following the death of Annie's husband, John, from leukemia. In light of this loss, she and her lifelong friend, Chris, take it upon themselves to raise funds for a new settee in the local hospital's waiting area. Their unique and daring fundraising initiative becomes the focus as they 'bare all' to gather money for both the hospital and leukemia research.

BCT Jr. Day Camp

BCT Jr. is a two week summer day camp for aspiring actors. Young actors starting age 8 can attend the basic level course, learning theater, singing, and dance. Advanced theater is for those who have completed basic and want an in depth acting experience. The tech course teaches scenic painting and stage combat. Advanced musical theater is our highest course and gives students a chance to further develop their acting and singing. registration is open for all courses and can be found under summer theater day camp at the Bemidji Parks and Rec website. Scholarships available as needed.
